HON. MORGAN J. O'BRIEN,
Formerly Presiding Justice of the New York Supreme Court, Appellate Division, First Department.

FREDERICK R. COUDERT, Ph.D., LL.B.....Special Lecturer on Constitutional Law

The Faculty will be increased for the fourth year, and as occasion demands.

PURPOSE OF THE SCHOOL.

It is the aim of the school to make its students efficient lawyers and qualify them for the conduct of public affairs, for the proper administration of which a knowledge of the law is essential. Therefore the historical and philosophical development, as well as the practical application of the subjects in the courses, will be taught. A very comprehensive course of lectures on General Jurisprudence will be delivered.

The design of the School is to afford a practical and scientific education in the principles of General Jurisprudence.

The Common and Statute Law of the United States.

The English and American Systems of Equity Jurisprudence.

The Public Law of the United States and England.

The Civil and Roman Law.

PERIOD OF STUDY.

The Course for the degee of Bachelor of Laws will cover three years; a fourth year's study is required for the degree of Master of Laws.

SYSTEM OF INSTRUCTION.

The case system will be followed.

A certain number of cases will be assigned each day for study.

The instructor will go over the matter embraced in the cases, discussing with the students the points and principles involved.

Students will thus have the fullest opportunity for familiarizing themselves with each topic treated in the course; first, by a careful study of the leading cases, and then by discussion with the instructor.

ACADEMIC YEAR.

The Third Academic Year, 1907-8, will commence Thursday, September 26, 1907, and end Tuesday, June 9, 1908. Recitations will be suspended on all legal holidays and the day following Thanksgiving Day; from Saturday, December 21st, to the day following New Year's Day, both inclusive; and from the Thursday preceding Easter Sunday to the following Monday, both inclusive.

Academic standing will be forfeited by absence from more than ten per cent. of the required lectures. Students unavoidably absent on account of illness or otherwise may be excused at the discretion of the Faculty.

Every candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Laws will be required to take all the subjects of the first three years.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

Applicants for degrees must be at least eighteen years of age, present certificates of good moral character, and be

(a) Graduates of a University or College approved by the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New York; or,

(b) Graduates of a high school maintaining a four years' Course, or its equivalent.

All applicants for degrees must be graduates of colleges or schools, registered or approved by the above Regents, or must produce a certificate from the Regents showing that they have received an education equivalent to the above requirements.

SPECIAL STUDENTS.

Students not possessing the above qualifications cannot take a degree, but upon obtaining a Law Student's Certificate issued by the Regents, are eligible for admission to the School, and upon the completion of the course of studies and passing an examination before the State Board of Law Examiners will be admitted to the New York Bar.

Special arrangements will be made with students who desire to pursue one or more courses at regular lecture hours.

LAW LIBRARY.

A well equipped library of American and English reports and text books is open at the school for the use of the students from 9 A. M. to 10 P. M., and every facility has been provided for research. Liberal additions will be made to the library as required.

EXAMINATIONS.

Examinations will be held at the completion of each subject in the course. Students failing to pass satisfactorily may, at the discretion of the Faculty, be conditioned and given the opportunity of an additional examination in the conditioned subjects before the commencement of the next academic year.

The first term will end on the last day of January in each year.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Two scholarships will be awarded, one to the member of the first year class and one to the member of the second year class who shall maintain the highest average in recitations and examinations during the year. Other scholarships will be announced hereafter.

ADMISSION TO THE BAR.

College graduates are entitled to apply for admission to the New York Bar after regular attendance at the school for two years. A three years' course is obligatory for others. An office clerkship is not required.

Sudents desiring to obtain a certificate of regular attendance, which is accepted by the State Board of Law Examiners as equivalent to a year's study of Law must register not later than the first Monday of October, and maintain an average attendance at the lectures for the year of not less than 90 per cent.

FEES.

The fee for instruction is One Hundred Dollars per annum, payable in advance, or Fifty Dollars on entrance and the balance on January 2nd following. A fee of Ten Dollars on examination for a degree is also payable.

COST OF LIVING.

The school does not maintain a boarding department, but information as to where board and rooms can be obtained on such terms as each student desires to pay will be furnished on application.
